Georgia Southern baseball players Aaron Mizell and Jason Richman were both selected in the 2015 Major League Baseball (MLB) Amateur Draft.

Richman, a junior relief pitcher from Alpharetta, Georgia, was selected in the 18th round by the Texas Rangers, and Mizell, a senior outfielder from McRae, Georgia, was selected in the 32nd round by the Houston Astros.

Gettin' Dirty for Dinner in the Campus Garden

The Center for Sustainability, Department of Facilities Services and Eagle Dining Services have joined together to create a campus garden. Volunteers are working to plant a variety of produce and herbs in the garden, including cherry tomatoes, slicing tomatoes, summer squash, winter squash, snap beans, swiss chard, watermelon and basil.

“This is a great educational opportunity as it will demonstrate how to grow food sustainably in a central and highly visible location,” said Lissa Leege, director of the University’s Center for Sustainability. “Students will play a critical role in the development and maintenance of the garden and will have a chance to learn by doing.”
